IN MEMORIAM.

In loving memory of my dear mother, Elizabeth Richardson, who passed away six years ago today, August 6, 1914.

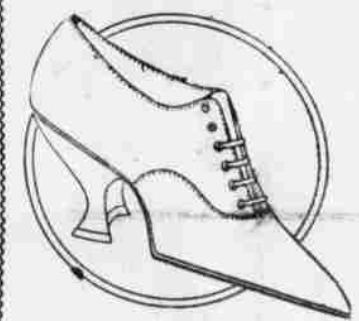

There is a link death cannot sever, Love and remembrance last forever; The years they wipe out never The memories of those happy days When we were together.

Six lonely years have passed away But it only seems as yesterday; O Lord-keep green the grave that lies Beneath the wide and starry skies Keep sweet with sleep and give her rest Those hands are folded on her breast.

O faithful one, kind and true, We always pray and think of you Rest on, dear one, thy labor is o'er Thy willing hands will toil no more; Yet we know that you are happy in the mansion of blest Where there is no pain or sorrow In the sweet eternal rest. Sadly missed by daughter Mrs. Anna E. Floyd and family.
